

Lancashire managed to close their seniors results at 57.5 for the year, with a 11 – 7 which brought Cheshire into 2nd place. Yorkshire had a keen battle to sit out against Durham who pulled a suburb 9 - 9 away result managing 51pts in third place. Meanwhile, Cumbria pulled a 9.5 – 8.5 result against Northumberland leaving them at the bottom of the league.

Lancashire were ensured their 11 - 7

Cheshire did their best in the morning with a 3 – 3 result in the greensomes at lunch. In the afternoon, the first two matches were all square with Foster & Lacy; Hughes & Crowther; Self & Flanagan; and Hannis & Lord with Cheshire’s Williams & Keates and Nelson & Blakeway. But the 8 – 4 to Lancashire brought a total of 11 – 7 for the match.

Yorkshire did their best but Durham held their grip

Yorkshire and Durham battled in the morning and it was Durham who had to hold the fort. John Kirkpatrick & Andrew Stewart set the ball rolling for a while when Richard Norton & Alan Wright squared the stance. Two further counts were squared up at lunchtime. In the afternoon, it was similar with 6 – 6 leaving the match at all square and a 9 – 9 result.

Cumbria just held the score-line from Northumberland

It was Cumbria that held the fort in the morning greensome with a 4½ - 1½ result. In the afternoon, it was a different situation with Northumberland trying to pull Back the score line from Cumbria. In the end, Cumbria just managed to to hold the fort with a 9½ - 8½